

Physical Exam

WRNC Training

Wildlife Rehabilitation Basic Course

Physical Exam

Important Points

Develop a routine (start at head & work down)

Don't stop once you find a problem

Examine babies

Physical Exam

What is the first step in a physical exam?

Observing the animal in the cage

Physical Exam

What do you look for when examining

Eyes?

Physical Exam

Eyes?

Clear & equally dilated

Nystagmus or twitches

Cuts, abrasions, discharge, swelling

Blood in or around eye

Consensual response

Physical Exam

Ears?

Physical Exam

Ears?

Discharge

Bleeding

Parasites

Physical Exam

Mouth (Oral)?

Physical Exam

Mouth (Oral)?

Gums & palate normal color (pink for most animals)
and moist or pale

Check capillary refill time

Lesions, plaques, parasites, abscesses, excessive
salivation, froth

Examine teeth

Hinge joint of jaw working, aligned properly

Physical Exam

Nasal area?

Physical Exam

Nasal area?

Check nares for discharge, bleeding, infection, sores, growths, and parasites

Normal air movement sounds

Physical Exam

Cardio-pulmonary?

Physical Exam

Cardio-pulmonary?

Breathing freely

Respiration depth & regularity

Gurgling or wheezing

Physical Exam

Muscular/Skeletal?

Physical Exam

Muscular/Skeletal?

Fractures/dislocations, muscle tears, tendon problems

Joint movement, lameness, swelling, hot spots

Reflexes/pain responses

Bruising

Look or feel thin

Physical Exam

Gastrointestinal Urogenital?

Physical Exam

Gastrointestinal Urogenital?

Mouth odors, discharge

Vomiting

Colored, smelly stools; consistency

Urine/urates normal; concentrated

Abdomen distention

Physical Exam

Feet?

Physical Exam

Feet?

Pads/hooves wounds & abrasions

Swelling

Hot