If you already have an account. . .

- If you have ever had any type of license through the NCWRC (wildlife rehabilitation, hunting, fishing, registered vessel, etc.), an account should already be there for you.
- You will be asked for 3 identifiers (birthday, last name, and one more).
- The website will automatically prompt you for your WRC ID as the third identifier. However, you may have to click “More Login Options” if you do not know your WRC ID or if that number does not work.
- “More Login Options” will prompt you for the last four of your social, driver’s license/state ID, military ID, or in-state college ID.
- Try any identifier with your birthday and last name until you find one that works.
